Delivery Period	Period comprised between 00:00 of the first delivery day and 24:00 of the last delivery day, both included, Central European Time (CET). In the case of Quarters and Years, given the Cascading Process, the notion of Delivery Period is purely notional.
Settlement in the Delivery Period	It applies exclusively to the existing Positions in the Month and Week, Weekend and Day Contracts, whether they have been originated by Operations directly performed over those Contracts or from the cascading of Positions held in the Year or Quarter Contracts. At the end of the Last Trading Day session of each Day, Weekend, Week or Month Contract, the open positions, including the ones resulting from the cascading of Positions of Quarter or Year Contracts, are considered firm and definitive for settlement during the Delivery Period, being subject, daily, of a purely financial settlement by OMIClear. OMIClear calculates on a daily basis the Delivery Settlement Value (DSV), according OMIClear's Instruction.
Initial Margin	According to the positions portfolio (based on SPAN model), following OMIClear Instruction. The Initial Margin requirements are fulfilled with collateral.
Settlement Price (During the Trading Period)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> OMIP defines on a daily basis for each Contract, the Settlement Price (SP), based on the methodology defined in an OMIP's Instruction. The Settlement Prices of the MIBEL PTEL Base Load Financial Futures contracts are equal to the Settlement Prices of the MIBEL PTEL Base Load Physical Futures contracts.

Daily Settlement (Mark-to-Market)	During the trading period of the contracts, a daily settlement of the profits and losses (mark-to-market) is processed, according to methodology and procedures set in OMIClear's Instructions.
Daily Price Change Limit	For each contract, the price of any transaction must not exceed a value (positive or negative) compared with the previous Settlement Price, according to the rules defined in OMIP Notice.
Spot Reference Price	For each delivery day, the spot reference price is the monetary value of the PTEL Base Index (1 € / index point), which is equivalent to the arithmetic mean of all the Spanish hourly marginal prices of OMIE's spot market, for the Portuguese system.
Trading Calendar	According to OMIP Notice, the Trading Days refer to all days except Saturdays, Sundays and all fixed and variable 'closing days' of TARGET system.
